

A stylized tiger head logo in yellow and olive green, centered within a yellow oval. The tiger's face is composed of bold, geometric shapes. The background of the oval features horizontal stripes: three yellow stripes on the left and three on the right, separated by olive green sections.

Pictures in Practice

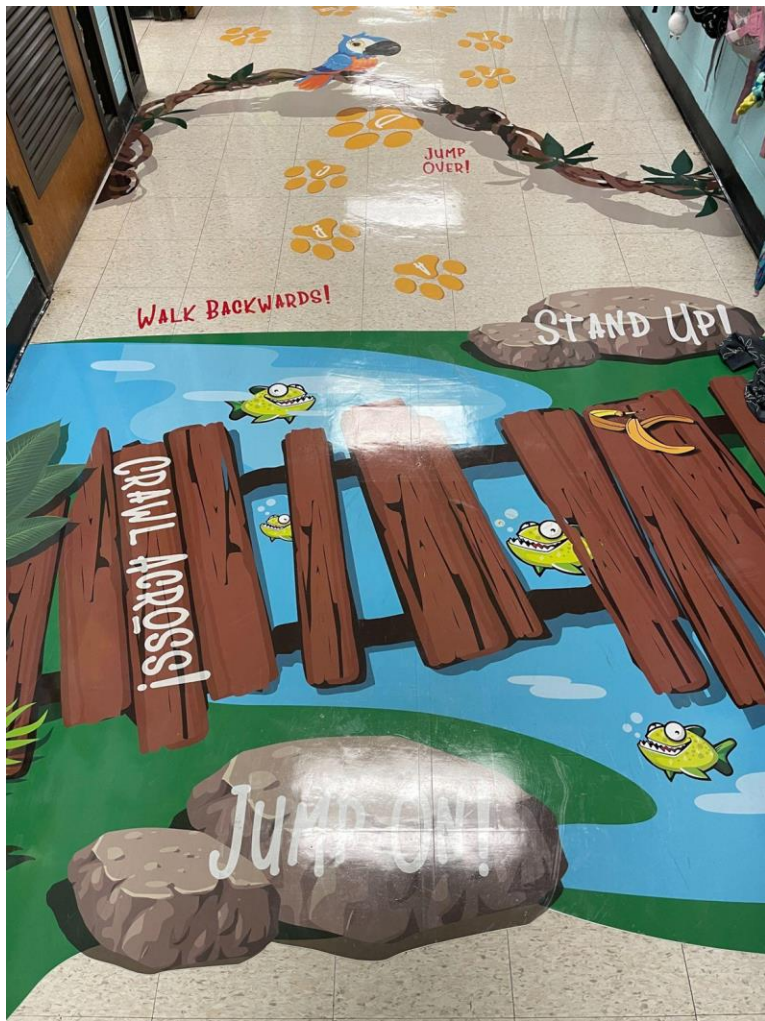

August/September 2022

The 3 Bs are everywhere in Crafton Elementary.

#3Bs
#SWPBIS

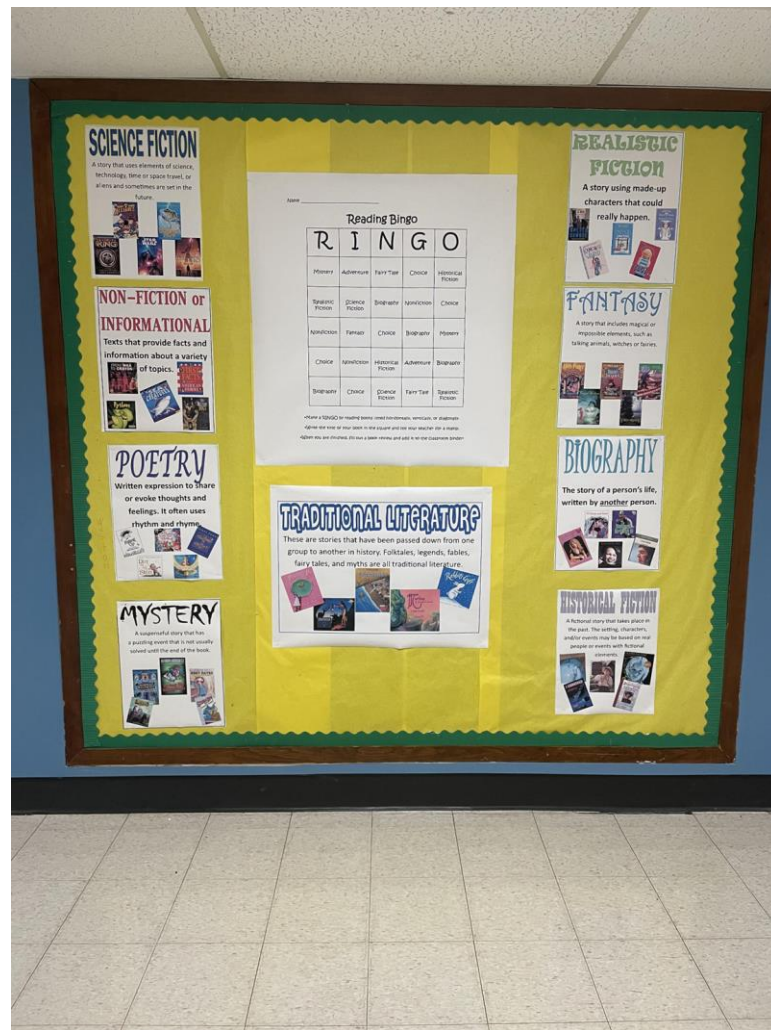

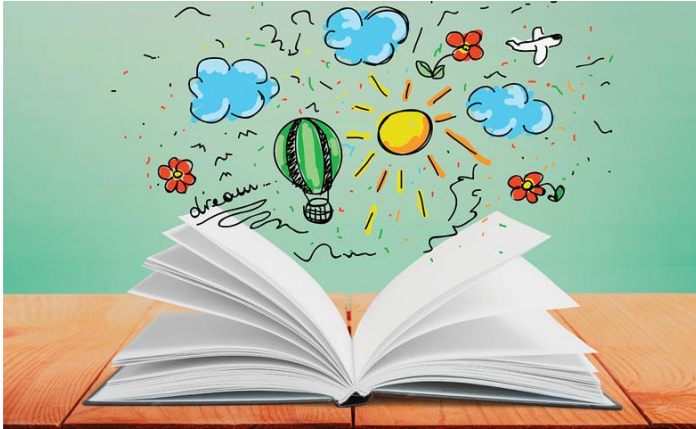

We teach to the whole child at all grade levels. Here is an example. . . Our sensory path helps students get the "wiggles" out.
#sensory
#creativity

ON THE MOVE

Ms. Kosko leads the Ringo Board in the 5th and 6th grade hall. It is a fun way to get students to read their favorites and try some new genres.

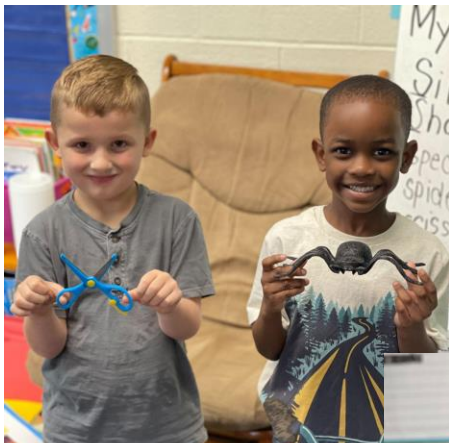

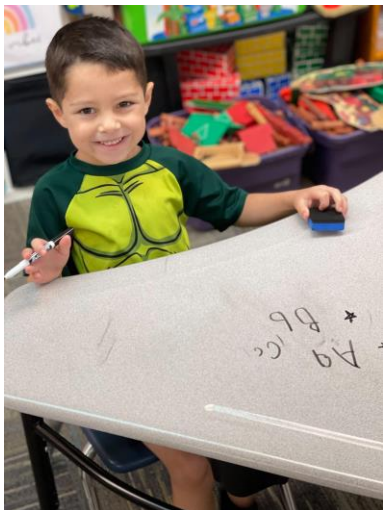

#readingisfun

#bingo

#morningtime

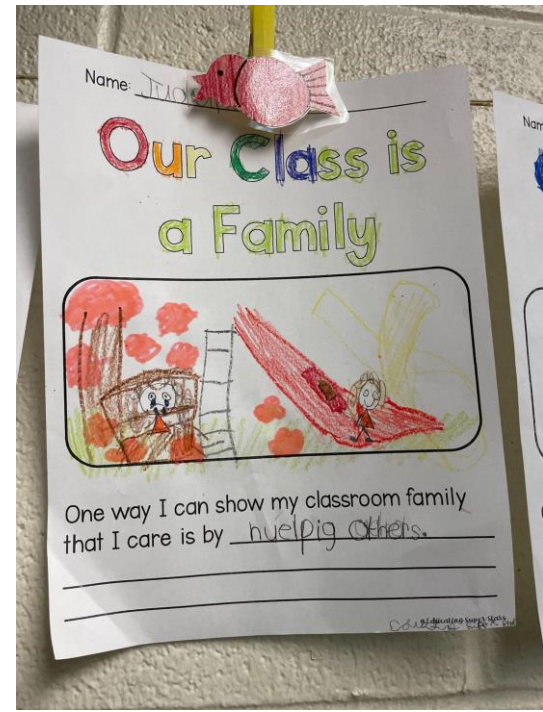

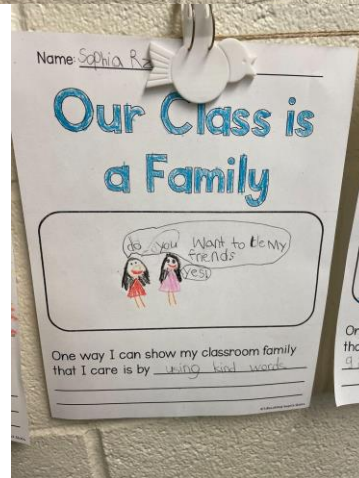

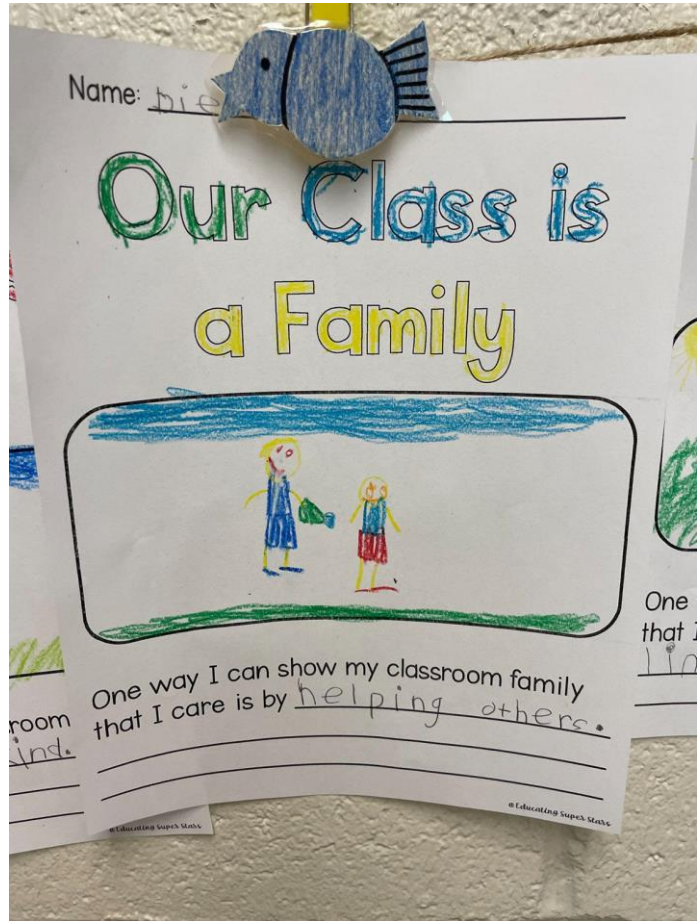

Alphabet Kick-off in Kindergarten

#abc

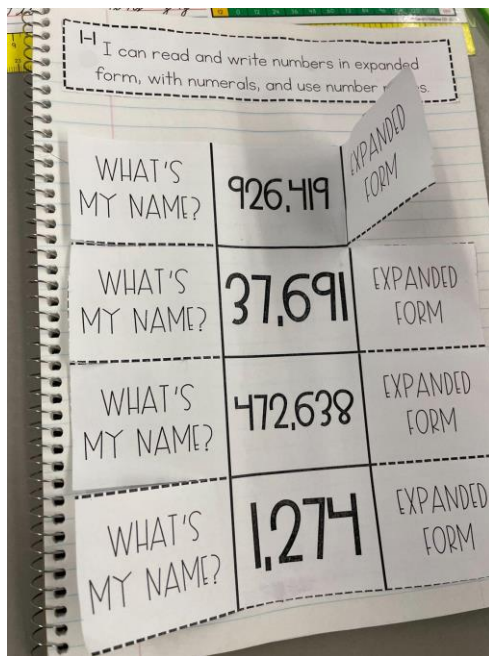

#allsmiles

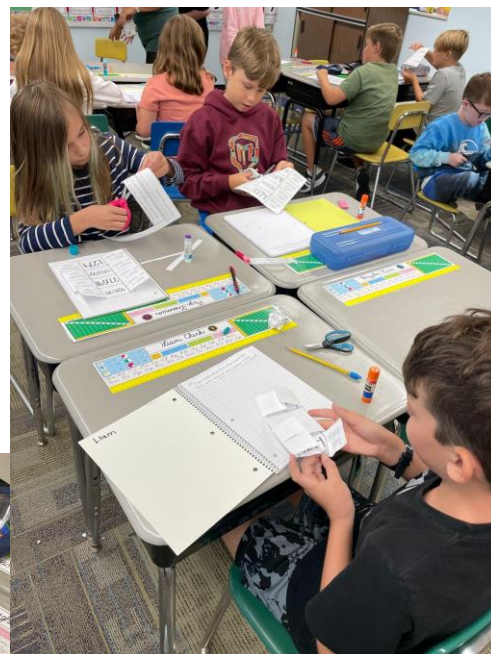

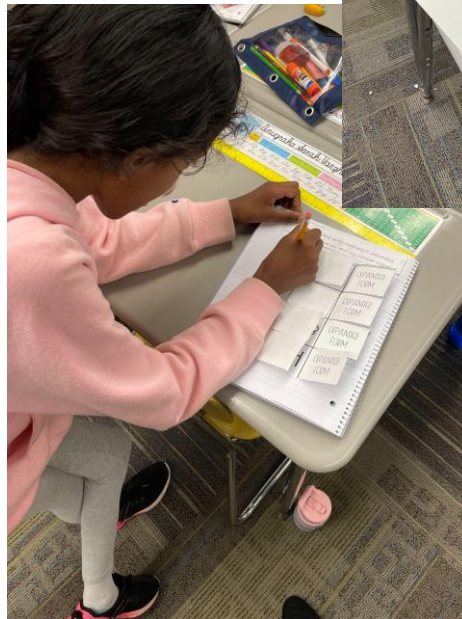

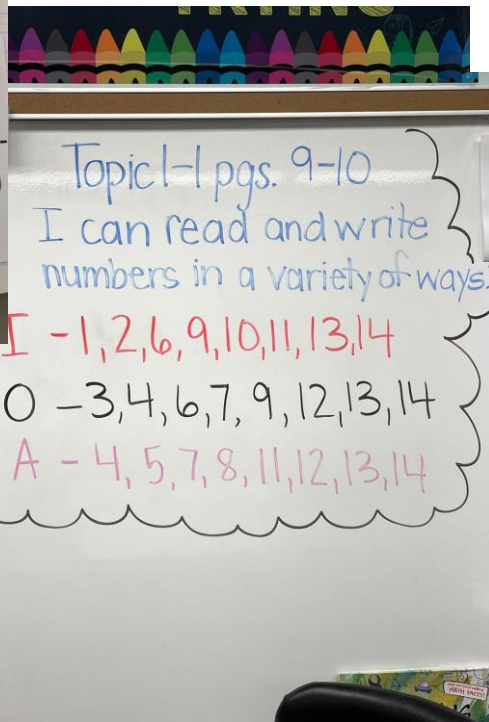

Our class is family in first grade.

#craftonpride

4th graders are working on their interactive math notebooks with Ms. Ficorilli.

#mathrocks

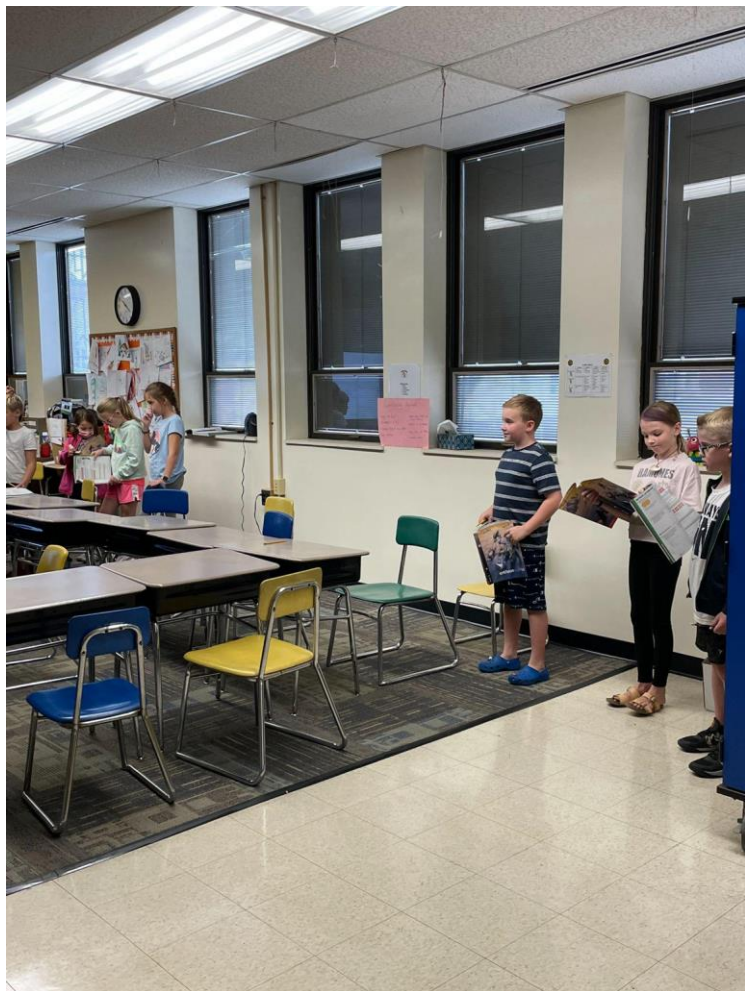

Recess Fun

#makingrelationships

3rd graders justify answers in Mr. Kuhn's math class.

#engagedlearners
#mathrocks
#ilovemath

Flexible seating makes for a comfortable and safe learning place.

#sensory

#learningisfun

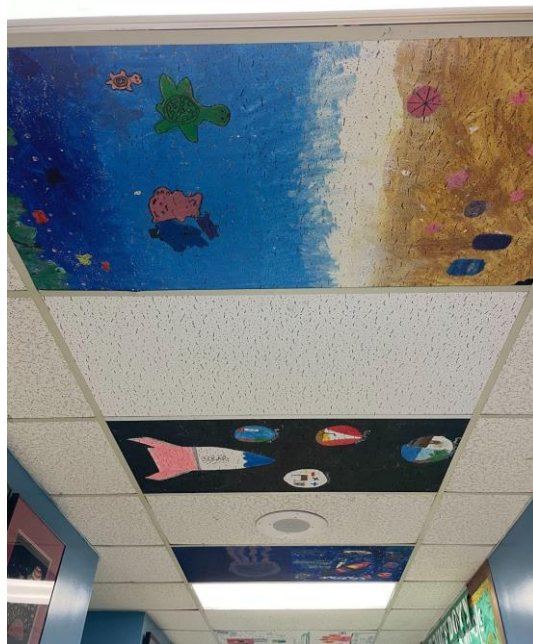

Kindergarten students explore apples in their class.

#aisforapple

#kindergartencheefs

6th grade of 21/22 paints ceiling tiles for their gift at the end of the year. We will miss Mrs. Mary Rose. Congratulations on your retirement!!

#memories

Josh and Gab comes back to Crafton

#PBIS #positivevibes

More pictures from The Josh and Gab Show

#joshandgab
#gluesticksong
#dancing

Ms. Alex reads a book at circle time to introduce the letter H.

#circletime #hisforhippo

Students have fun playing kickball during intramurals.

#wholechild

#teamwork

#funmemories

Ms. Alex's class uses hands-on learning tools to help keep students engaged throughout the day.

#allsmiles

#krocks

Ready
Set
Go...
Kindergarten!

Don't forget to check out Crafton Elementary on Twitter.

@CraftonElem

